PENNA. ELEVEN WILL MEET SUN DODGING FOES

By Associated Press
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 22.—University of Washington's football team meets an almost traditional rival in the stadium here December 3, when Coach Hugo Bezdek brings his Pennsylvania State eleven to meet the Sun Dodgers in the second inter-sectional gridiron struggle played in Seattle.

On the basis of early season results, Penn State will be the stronger when the two teams begin play December 3. But one team has been able to score on Bezdek's crew this fall until the Nittany Lions met Harvard October 22. Bezdek's men had the edge on the Cambridge eleven until the closing minutes of the contest, when the Crimson put over the tying touchdown of a 21-21 score October 29, in its first inter-sectional game. Penn State defeated the strong Georgia Tech eleven, 28 to 7. The records of the team this season include victories over Lebanon Valley, Gettysburg, North Carolina and Lehigh.

Coach Hagshaw took over the direction of a green squad when he came to Washington this year. Comparatively easy victories were scored over the Ninth Army Corps team, Whitman college and University of Montana. Then the Oregon Agricultural college defeated Hagshaw's eleven, 24-0. Every effort of the Washington team has been bent toward defeat of Penn State, and Purple and Gold supporters are confident their eleven will make its best showing of the season December 3. On November 5, Washington upset predictions by holding the strong Stanford eleven to a scoreless tie.

REWARD

Will pay $250 for the arrest and conviction of one or all the parties who broke into the shaft house of the Apex Mines company and took a 30 h. p. motor and starting box. Will pay a further reward of $100 for the return of the motor and starting box. A further reward of $100 will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of one or all the guilty parties.

BLOUSES DELIGHT THE EYE WITH NEW ENCHANTMENTS

ALL womanhood is striving shop-wear these days making endless journeys and excursions among the new displays of hats and blouses. The milliner has a rival now, for blouses grow and grow in importance and delight the eye with new enchantments of beautiful color or exquisite, intricate embroideries. Good shopping is about as inviting as walking in a garden of wonderful flowers, but not so safe for the pocketbook. However, it is time now to make a choice among hats and blouses for fall—there never was a better time—and the first showings are apt to be the best.

Crepe-de-chine and other creeps appear to have seized upon the imagination of women almost to the exclusion of other materials, when they consider blouses. These lovely fabrics make all the fancy blouses and many of the plain ones. It is always summer in their realm; at least there is nothing about them that betrays a concession to wintry weather. But they manage nevertheless to be gay barbers of the new season by flouting their colors and their embellishments.

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Postmaster Morgan has again appealed to the business men of New York to discontinue, as far as possible, the mailing of large quantities of circulars and catalogues during the week immediately preceding Christmas day. This is to enable the postoffice to handle the great quantity of Christmas mail which begins to run heavy about two weeks before the holiday.

The postmaster stated that business men aided him last year in preventing congestion of mail at that time by withholding mail which could be deferred until after Christmas.

In urging them to do the same this year, he stated that it had been ascertained that many persons transporting large numbers of circulars and catalogues should arrange their advertising campaigns so that these can be mailed either before December 19 or after the holiday rush is over, without detriment to their interests.

(By Associated Press)
GLASGOW, Scotland, Nov. 22.—The market for shipbuilding is so poor that no new order to build a ship has been received at Wallsend on the Tyne since the beginning of the year, says Sir George Burton Hunter, chairman of the board of directors of one of the big shipbuilding companies there.

A vessel now nearly completed at Sunderland has been sold at a price less than one-half her cost of construction. Sir George gives figures showing that it now costs 11.73 pounds for a ton of steel used in a ship, as compared to 3.58 in 1911.

The iron workers, he says, now handle about two hundredweight of steel per week less than they did 10 years ago.

Sir George asserts also that wages are from three to three and a half times those paid 10 years ago, when the amount of work done is taken into consideration. He says that the workers accomplish 26 per cent less work now than in 1911, and he adds:

"This applies to other industries as well as shipbuilding and explains why more orders are not obtainable and why so many men are unemployed."

Not such a bad come-back at that

WE WERE all sitting
IN THE smoking car.
AND HARRY, who admits
HE'S A born comedian,
TURNED TO me and said,
"I'D BEEN reading about
SPIRIT MESSAGES, and guess
WHAT HAPPENED to me.
I DREAMED my watch was gone,
AND WOKE and looked."
OF COURSE I had to bite.
AND ASK, "Was it gone?"
AND HE said, "No—
BUT IT was going."
SO THEY kidded me till
I THOUGHT I'd got hunk,
SO I said, "Well,
I DREAMED one day,
WHILE RIDING with Harry,
THAT THE barn was burning.
BUT WOKE up and gosh,
IT WAS Harry's cigarette."
AND HARRY said,
"NOT TODAY, old dear,
I'M SMOKING your kind now."
AND PULLED a pack
OF "SATISFY'S."
AND THE only come-back
I COULD scare up was,
"ISN'T THAT glassine wrapper,
GREAT FOR keeping
CIGARETTES FROM drying,
EVEN IN hot air?"

EXTRA! The Chesterfield moisture-proof wrapper increases our cost, not yours—but it's your enjoyment. It preserves the delicate flavor of these wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, and keeps the cigarettes firm, fresh and good-tasting whatever the weather.

Burglars Don't Seek the Light!

Darkness is their stock in trade. They work by stealth—unheard and unseen—their movements cloaked in secrecy. It's honest folks that see the light. They are the only ones who can risk it.

It's the same way in business. The merchant who is not sure of his goods does not dare to advertise. Advertising would hasten the end of his business career—put him to a test he could not meet.

The merchant who advertises, deliberately invites your inspection. He tells you about his product and then lets it stand on its own merits. You can depend on him. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays you to read the advertisements in THE BONANZA. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business houses are spending their money to introduce and keep before you.

Advertisements are interesting, instructive and profitable. They throw a powerful light on the very things that concern you most. READ THEM!
